The Principality of Monaco has a unique atmosphere, particularly around the Stade Louis II, the multilevel football stadium that is encircled by residential buildings. Home to AS Monaco, the stadium hosted Bayer 04 Leverkusen in September 2016 for the second of six matches in the UEFA Champions League 16/17 group phase. HRG Sports Travel organized the travel arrangements for the team and the U19 team, as well as the accompanying sponsors and media representatives.

HRG Sports Travel picked the perfect accommodation for the players in Monaco to give them a peaceful environment to prepare for their match against Monaco, while sponsors and media representatives were based in neighboring Nice.

HRG Sports Travel also organized something very special for the evening meal: La Mère Germaine, a harbor-side restaurant in an authentic village where guests could sample the French lifestyle and cuisine. The pre-match dinner was held at the cozy A'Trego restaurant just outside Monaco. The boat trip from Nice to the restaurant along the French Mediterranean coastline in idyllic sunshine put smiles on everyone's faces and created the perfect mood for the game against AS Monaco!
